

FEATURED ARTIST SOURCEBOOK FLORENCE DELVA

Curated by STUDIO EL

Among Studio EL's top artists, the work of Florence Delva stands alone. Her photography is comprised of imagery that is contemporary, natural, and sophisticated.

This collection of nature inspired macro-photography, ethereal abstractions, and botanical imagery represents of the evolution of this artist as a force in contemporary photography. The artist spends hours exploring and searching with light, texture, shapes, and colors to reveal the magic hidden behind the most simple things... allowing imagination and fantasy to cultivate personal interpretation. She has a predilection for abstraction with an "organic touch," using water, botanical elements or paper to create "micro landscapes." Florence Delva captures more than a still life and evokes an enigmatic emotion between dream and reality, abstraction and representation.

As a freelance photographer, Florence Delva works in both the fine and commercial arts. Born in France, she studied photography in communication arts and media, she has worked in Paris for more than 15 years as an art director, photo producer, and a photographer. She currently works and lives in Los Angeles, fulfilling her dream of living a creative life, doing what she loves most. Her work is displayed worldwide, in many corporate, residential collections, hospitality and healthcare.
